TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston)

St. Petersburg 23d.—In view of the fact that many speculators are staying what in the eastern provinces, to the prejudice of thousands of starving people in that part of the Empire, the Czar has ordered the Mayor of Moscow to pay fifteen millions of rubles toward the grain, all to be distributed to poor families. The Mayor has likewise been ordered to seize all the grain that arrives there, in case the holders refuse the good prices offered them.

New York 23d.—The report of the Insurance Inspection Council accuses President Beers, of the New York Insurance Company, of having made away with millions of its funds. But the Company is now liquidating its affairs.

Berlin 23d.—The Reichstag will extend the reduction in the tariff to wheat, wine and timber for building purposes.
The new tariff will be for all nations, and will come into force on April 30th.

Berlin 24th.—The negotiation of a new loan of £2,000,000 with Rothschild for banking circulation may be considered as concluded.

Rome 24th.—At Gozzano and Velletri the carabinieri threw down several houses, but nobody was killed. Here in the capital the panic was terrible, especially in the theatres, which were crowded at the time, and in which the theatricals were being performed.

Calcutta 24th.—The police have just discovered a store of arms and ammunition that had been secretly obtained by the Anarchists.

St. Petersburg 24th.—Wladimirsky, Minister of Finance, has decided not to withdraw the Russian gold lodged in several banks abroad.

Tunis 24th.—In a fight between the rebels and the Tripoli and soldiers from here, the latter lost twenty men killed.

Berlin 24th.—Finance Minister Mickel and General Capri de la Roche of the new Educational Bill. The resignation of the former is expected at any moment. The Minister of Finance is not the only member of the Cabinet who opposes the bill and the obligatory religious education forced on those children who happen not to belong to the Catholic, Lutheran or Orthodox church.

Nationality, Liberal and Free Thinkers attack the Bill; the Conservatives do not view it with favour either, as the new law obliges Catholics, Methodists, Deists and Free Thinkers to send their children through a religious course of Morian, Quaker, Greek, Anglican, Hebrew and Old Lutheran persuasion.
Parents who may happen to be neither Catholic nor Lutheran are at liberty to pick out any of the above courses for their children.

London 24th.—Prince George will be appointed commander of the Queen's yacht, and then Rear Admiral.

Warsaw 24th.—The Government has resolved to close all the Catholic churches and convents in the provinces of Podolia and Volynia.

Lisbon 24th.—It is stated that the Coupons of the Portuguese Hosiery were burdened with an additional tax of 3 per cent.

Havre 25th.—The steamer Normandie foundered, five passengers perishing.

London 25th.—The rumour that Prince George of Teck will marry Princess Alexandra of Denmark is being spread.

Rome 25th.—The state of health of the Pope is giving rise to some uneasiness.
In answer to a question in the Deputies Baron Nicotera, Minister of the Interior, stated that the Pope's health inspired no fears and that there was no foundation to the alarming reports spread. This morning's papers confirm Nicotera's statement and report favourably on his Holiness' condition. The Reforma, writing in connection with these reports states that the next Conclave would witness a stirring contest between Italian and Foreign Cardinals aspiring to the Papal Throne.

London 25th.—The old historic palace of the Duke of Argyll has been burnt to the ground.

New York 25th.—It is probable that the President will wait one or two days for an answer to the ultimatum before sending the special message to Congress.
The Judge in the Baltimore question declares that the Valpo attack was premeditated.

Calcutta 25th.—At the request of the new Khudwa troops took the traditional oath of fealty.

Paris 25th.—French Catholics are working to help the Pope to separate the Catholicity in France from that of the Church and to reduce the position of the Count of Paris. Fifty Royalists Deputies declared that they would resign if the Pope's letter to Cardinal Richard in which he invites the clergy not to oppose the Republic were published.

Calcutta 25th.—The American embassy from Valparaiso has arrived here with the political Chilian refugees.

London 25th.—The vacancy caused by Lord Hastings' rise to the peerage will be probably filled by a Gladstone candidate.

Rome 25th.—The Italian Ambassador in Paris has resigned.

THE GUARANTEED RAILWAYS.

At the time that the concessions were given for the railways now in construction it occurred to the Government that they were undertaking a very serious responsibility in engaging to work them for 50 per cent of the gross receipts.

It was, however, to be supposed that the parties interested in these concessions knew their business and had calculated the probable traffic per mile and the working expenses. The result proves that the concessions were framed in a manner making disastrous to the companies, the working-expenses largely exceeding the total stipulated.
According to the official report before us the ratio of working-expenses was as follows:—

MAILS FROM EUROPE.

The following summary of the mails received here is supplied by the Monitor.

London Jan. 4th.—The Standard publishes a lengthy article on the Morocco question, which, it says, is not likely to give rise to any conflict.

Paris Jan. 4th.—The strike of the employees (1,500) of the Union Cal. continues. The drivers refuse to pay more than 15 francs per day per cab.

There is a marked feeling of animosity between the anarchists and socialists.
Several Socialists have been expelled from the party for having taken part in a public demonstration against an anarchist.

London Jan. 4th.—The Times publishes a telegram from Paris announcing the arrival there of a Russian financial delegation, headed by the late Count Sokoloff, on the subject of the negotiation of a loan. The Times does not believe the negotiation will amount to anything.

Infanza is raging, but only only one case is reported. Dr. Charcot is at present down with it.

Buda-Pesth January 2nd.—Pufelsch, cashier of the National Savings Bank, has committed suicide, leaving a deficit of 14 million florins.

Vicenza Jan. 4th.—Advices from Buda-Pesth state that Pufelsch's defection has had no effect on the Bourse or even amongst the depositors of the Bank.

Paris Jan. 4th.—The Foreign Affairs Minister maintains that according to existing treaties Bulgaria was perfectly justified in expelling the Habsburgs.

Berlin Jan. 4th.—On the occasion of the new year, very cordial telegrams were exchanged between the Pope and the Emperor William.

Paris Jan. 3rd.—To judge by the news, it will be very difficult to get Spain and France to make a commercial treaty.

Paris Jan. 4th.—Advices from Cete report a strike amongst the laborers, in view of the increased work entailed by the extraordinary arrivals of Spanish goods.

Rome Jan. 4th.—Influenza is raging in Italy. There were 150 deaths in Milan yesterday, the ordinary rate being between 40 and 50. The grave-diggers find it impossible to attend to all the work and the troops have been ordered to assist in burying the dead. This has caused quite a panic.

Constantinople Jan. 5th.—Influenza has broken out on H. M. S. Dread- nought. There are at present 150 men down with it.

Paris Jan. 5th.—France is making favorable commercial treaties with Sweden, Greece, and the U. States.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

Jan. 25th.

The weather was nice and fresh yesterday, but to-day the heat has begun again to be felt.

Government has received telegrams from London. It is stated that there is of a favorable tone and that the bank negotiations are proceeding satisfactorily.

Government has already lent the Luzon Bank an aggregate sum of £300,000 to pay the debt service, according to agreement with the London bondholders.

It is stated that the reason of the proposed loan is that Dr. Bana, Urugu-ayan Minister to Rio, is that the President has offered him the Foreign Affairs portfolio. Dr. Bana refused to accept unless the Civil War Act be repealed. This, it is said, the President declined to do.

A Cabinet Council was held on Saturday to consider the question of military tribunals. It appears that the great difficulty in the way is the cost of such an institution.

Mr. Jones, manager of the Oriental Telegraph, is seriously ill. He is being assisted in the British Hospital.

The memorial service for the late Duke of Clarence took place yesterday.
The British Minister and all the leading English families were present.

The races yesterday were enormous crowd. There were a considerable number of B. Ayres present.

The International Stakes—£1,000—was carried off by the Argentine horse, Cam- eros, finishing behind British and Alban.

Mr. Alfred Grenfell, British Acting Consul General, having been asked by the leading British residents to telegraph an expression of the sympathy felt here by the sad and premature death of H. R. H. the Duke of Clarence and Avondale, the following messages were sent, attached on Thursday.

To Her Majesty the Queen. Your Majesty's faithful subjects in Montevideo humbly express their sorrow at the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and Avondale.

To Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales. The British Residents humbly express their deep sorrow and condolence to Your Royal Highnesses.

(Signed) A. Grenfell.

Acting Consul General.

The following reply was received direct from Her Majesty.
